MINIMUM LABOUR STANDARDS

The Company has identified the following compelling reasons to establish a comprehensive system of minimum labour standards to guide its business operations:

- 1. Ethical Responsibilities - The Company acknowledges its obligations towards its employees, stakeholders and the communities in which we work and operate. The Company wishes to carry out work and to do business in an ethical fashion.
- 2. Adverse Publicity and Damage to the Company's Reputation – adverse publicity from the discovery of poor labour standards within the Company's business operations presents reputational and structural risks to the Company not only in terms of revenue, but also in respect of staff recruitment and retention. Poor labour standards can also lead to a loss of trust and confidence with suppliers and also within the wider community. The Company therefore wants to do what is right and be seen to do what is right.
- 3. Reduced Quality of Service – the Company recognises that there is
